CONFLICT OF INTEREST FORM

AT THE END OF THIS LETTER, PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU HAVE SUPPLIED THE NAME, ADDRESS, TELEPHONE AND FAX NO. AND E-MAIL ADDRESS OF THE CORRESPONDING AUTHOR FOR THIS MANUSCRIPT

Dear Editor,

Manuscript ref. no. (in full)

We have submitted this manuscript for publication in the BJA. We accept that the BJA has to know of any interests or relationships that could affect material to be published. We therefore disclose all possible Conflicts of Interest from all the authors, and are clarifying any positive answers in an accompanying letter.

Funding includes gifts; research or educational grants (direct or indirect); contracts; and any form of business interest including consultancy, lecture/travel fees, honoraria or payment of expenses, received within the last five years from any source with financial interest in the contents of the manuscript (either for or against). Although not exclusively, financial interest involves business interests, or past or future payments, to any author.

We respond to the following questions:

1. Has the work been funded by any source (including salaries to the authors) other than that described on the title page? Yes/No
2. Does any author or participant have any financial interest in the subject, or in the materials or equipment used in the manuscript (or its competitors)? Yes/No
3. Has the laboratory, department or any participant in the research been funded by, or have financial interests in, any source that could have an interest in the contents of the article or any competing product or subject? Yes/No

4. Has the laboratory or department, or any of the authors or participants, been funded by a foundation or other source which has received funding from sources with a real or potential interest in the material, in the article or its competitors?
Yes/No

5. If you are describing a Case Report, or in any way can identify a patient from the information provided in your manuscript, have you obtained the patient's written permission or the approval of the next-of-kin to report these details?
Yes/No

If so, Please provide further details here and send the written approval to the Editor responsible for your manuscript.
