Subscription Information

Individual libraries (single and multi-site) and consortia can subscribe to the entire package, a subject package, or a customized selection tailored to meet their needs, including access to content dating back to 1996. The entire package consists of 238 journals. See the full title listings elsewhere in this brochure for information about each of the subject packages:

The Medicine Collection (73 titles)

The Life Sciences Collection (36 titles)

The Mathematics & Physical Sciences Collection (30 titles)

The Law Collection (30 titles)

The Humanities Collection (62 titles)

The Social Sciences Collection (50 titles)

The Oxford Journals Archive

To access content published prior to 1996, libraries can purchase or subscribe to the Oxford Journals Archive. The Archive includes content published from 1849 to 1995 in more than 4 million pages of content back to Volume 1 Issue 1 for each title included. Available as a complete package or as five subject packages the Archive is the perfect complement to an Oxford Journals Collection subscription. For further details visit www.oxfordjournals.org/collections/archives.

A note on perpetual access

Our institutional subscribers will have perpetual access to journal content they subscribe to or have previously subscribed to. Library users will continue to be able to access the full text PDFs for those volumes where a subscription was held and activated online. Should we no longer retain the rights to publish that content (for example, if a journal changes publisher) we cannot guarantee continued access but would make all reasonable efforts to negotiate such rights with the new publisher. For more information on our perpetual access policy please visit www.oxfordjournals.org/for_librarians/perpetual_access.html.

eleven new titles for 2012

Arbitration Law Reports and Review

Volume 2012, 1 issue per year

Arbitration Law Reports and Review is the definitive source for full text English arbitration cases and analysis. The analytical and comparative commentary section adds context to individual decisions, offers additional references relevant to arbitration issues, and assists in identifying trends. The journal makes full texts of judgments on arbitration law of England, Wales and Northern Ireland available in a single publication on an annual basis.

Children & Schools

Volume 34, 4 issues per year

Children & Schools publishes professional materials relevant to social work services for children. The journal publishes articles on innovations in practice, interdisciplinary efforts, research, program evaluation, policy, and planning. Topics include student-authority relationships, multiculturalism, early intervention, needs assessment, violence, and ADHD. Children & Schools is a practitioner-to-practitioner resource.

Published on behalf of the National Association of Social Workers.

European Journal of Cardio-Thoracic Surgery

Volume 41, 12 issues per year

The primary aim of the European Journal of Cardio-Thoracic Surgery is to provide a medium for the publication of high-quality original scientific reports documenting progress in cardiac and thoracic surgery. The journal publishes reports of significant clinical and experimental advances related to surgery of the heart, the great vessels and the chest. The European Journal of Cardio-Thoracic Surgery is an international journal and accepts submissions from all regions. The journal is supported by a number of leading European societies.

Published on behalf of the European Association for Cardio-Thoracic Surgery.

European Review of Economic History

Volume 16, 4 issues per year

European Review of Economic History has established itself as a major outlet for high-quality research in economic history, which is accessible to readers from a variety of different backgrounds. The Review publishes articles on a wide range of topics in European, comparative and world economic history. Contributions shed new light on existing debates, raise new or previously neglected topics and provide fresh perspectives from comparative research.

Published on behalf of the European Historical Economics Society.

Health & Social Work

Volume 37, 4 issues per year

For 20 years, human services professionals have relied on Health & Social Work for the latest advances in areas such as aging, clinical work, long-term care, oncology, substance abuse, depression, and maternal health. Articles also cover research, policy, specialized services, quality assurance, in-service training, and other topics that affect the delivery of health care services.

Published on behalf of the National Association of Social Workers.

Journal of European Competition Law & Practice

Volume 3, 6 issues per year

Journal of European Competition Law & Practice is dedicated to the practice of competition law in Europe. Primarily focused on EC competition law, coverage includes the full range of substantive competition law topics as well as practice-related matters such as litigation and enforcement. The journal takes a broad approach, setting competition law in the context of EU law, and looking at its application to, and impact on, related areas of law and industry sectors. It combines the highest standards of legal analysis with concise presentation and practice-relevance.

Journal of Social History

Volume 45, 4 issues per year

The Journal of Social History has served as one of the leading outlets for work in this growing research field since its inception over 40 years ago. JSH publishes articles in social history from all areas and periods, and has played an important role in integrating work in Latin American, African, Asian and Russian history with sociohistorical analysis in Western Europe and the United States.

The Review of Corporate Finance Studies

Volume 1, 1 issue per year

The Review of Corporate Finance Studies (RCFS) aims to publish research of the highest quality in the field of Corporate Finance, broadly defined. Corporate Finance includes but is not limited to the study of a firm's interactions with its stakeholders in general and capital markets in particular, the design of its internal organization structure, its compensation and incentive mechanisms, corporate governance, the management of capital and its internal allocation rules. RCFS will also consider research in financial intermediation and financial institutions, microstructure and the implications of asset pricing for Corporate Finance.

Published on behalf of the Society for Financial Studies.

Social Forces

Volume 90, 4 issues per year

Published in partnership with the Department of Sociology at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Social Forces is recognized as a global leader among social research journals. Though it highlights sociological inquiry, the journal also explores realms shared with social psychology, anthropology, political science, history, and economics.

Social Work

Volume 57, 4 issues per year

Social Work is the premiere journal of the social work profession and the official journal of the National Association of Social Workers. It is dedicated to improving practice and advancing knowledge in social work and social welfare. Its articles yield new insights into established practices, evaluate new techniques and research, examine current social problems, and bring serious critical analysis to bear on problems in the profession. Major emphasis is placed on social policy and the solutions to serious human problems.

Published on behalf of the National Association of Social Workers.

Social Work Research

Volume 36, 4 issues per year

Social Work Research publishes exemplary research to advance the development of knowledge and inform social work practice. Widely regarded as the outstanding journal in the field, it includes analytic reviews of research, theoretical articles pertaining to social work research, evaluation studies, and diverse research studies that contribute to knowledge about social work issues and problems.

Published on behalf of the National Association of Social Workers.
