HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE ECONOMICS & FINANCE COLLECTION

JOINING OXFORD JOURNALS IN 2011...

The Quarterly Journal of Economics

Publishing since 1886, 4 issues per year

The Quarterly Journal of Economics is the oldest professional journal of economics in the English language. Founded in 1886, it covers all aspects of the field - from the journal's traditional emphasis on microtheory to both empirical and theoretical macroeconomics.

Published on behalf of Harvard University (previously published by MIT Press).

The Review of Economic Studies

Publishing since 1933, 4 issues per year

Founded in 1933 by a group of young British and American economists, The Review of Economic Studies encourages research in theoretical and applied economics, especially by young economists. The Review is essential reading for economists, consistently ranking among the top five titles in its field.

Published on behalf of Review of Economic Studies Ltd (previously published by Wiley Blackwell).

Applied Economic Perspectives and Policy

Publishing since 1979, 4 issues per year

Applied Economic Perspectives and Policy (AEP) aims to inform future economic research and broad audiences by presenting high-quality consumer, agricultural, and natural resource economic research in a way that is generally accessible and policy relevant. In addition to adopting a wide subject scope, AEP solicits perspective articles that synthesize, integrate, and analyse selected themes of interest. These are published alongside submitted articles.
