(Note: each author must complete a separate form and return it to the corresponding author)

PLEASE NOTE: As an integral part of the online submission process, corresponding authors are required to confirm whether they or their co-authors have any conflicts of interest to declare, and to provide details of these. If the corresponding author is unable to confirm this information on behalf of all co-authors, the authors in question are required to complete and fax this Conflict of Interest form to the relevant Editorial Office (+44 1482 461779). It is the corresponding author's responsibility to ensure that all authors adhere to this policy.

MANUSCRIPT AUTHORS: If you have been asked to do so by the corresponding author, please complete Part A or B. At the point of submission, EURJHF policy requires that each author reveal (1) any financial interest in or arrangement with a company whose product was used in a study or is referred to in a manuscript; (2) any financial interest in or arrangement with a competing company; (3) any direct payment to an author(s) from any source for the purpose of writing the manuscript; and (4) any other financial connections, direct or indirect, or other situations that might raise the question of bias in the work reported or the conclusions, implications, or opinions stated - including pertinent commercial or other sources of funding for the individual author(s) or for the associated department(s) or organization(s), personal relationships, or direct academic competition. If the manuscript is published, such information may be communicated in a note following the text and references.

Please complete Part A or Part B.
