

The Impact of the Criminal Process on Health Care Ethics and Practice
AHRC-funded project – University of Manchester & Lancaster University

Good, Bad or Indifferent? Medicine and the Criminal Process

Two-Day International Conference

3rd and 4th November 2009

Chancellor's Conference Centre – University of Manchester

Day 1: Prosecuting Doctors

Keynote Address: Criminalising Medical Error

Professor Peter SKEGG – University of Otago, New Zealand

Response from Dr Oliver QUICK – University of Bristol

Day 2: Ethical Conflicts in the Criminal Courts

Debate – “Euthanasia and assisted suicide should, when properly performed by a doctor in an appropriate case, be decriminalized.”

Professor John GRIFFITHS – University of Groningen, Netherlands

Professor John KEOWN – Georgetown University, USA

The Courts and Bioethical Conflict

The Hon. Mr Justice HEDLEY

A Philosopher Reflects

Professor David ARCHARD – Lancaster University

Other speakers will include:

Dr Barry Lyons University of Manchester Penny Brearey-Horne University of Essex

Dr Stephen Smith University of Birmingham Prof. Alan Norrie Kings College London

Further details:

<http://www.law.manchester.ac.uk/research/hccriminalprocess/index.html>

Conference Fees:

£255 – Two days including dinner, bed and breakfast / £215 – Two days / £125 – One day
(Dinner for day delegates at a surcharge of £20 per head)

For a booking form and further information, please contact:

Lindsey Hall, School of Law, University of Manchester, Oxford Rd, Manchester, M13 9PL, UK

Email: ahrconference-lawandmedicine@manchester.ac.uk Tel: +44 (0)161 275 5785