USE OF PRE-PRINTS AND POST-PRINTS (as defined in the Notes below)

Following acceptance of your Article you are entitled to mount the PRE-PRINT (manuscript) version of the Article on your own personal website and/or that of your employer and/or post it on free public servers of preprints and/or articles in your subject area, as long as you acknowledge that the Article has been accepted for publication by the relevant Journal. On publication of your Article in the Journal you are not required to remove the PRE-PRINT version from your own personal website or that of your employer or free public servers of pre-prints and/or articles in your subject area, provided (1) you include a link (url) to the published version of the Article on the Journal's website; AND (2) the Journal is attributed as the original place of publication with the correct citation details given.

You may post the POST-PRINT version of the Article (but not the published version itself) onto your own website, your institution's website and in institutional or subject-based repositories, such as PubMed Central or the Oxford Eprints service, PROVIDED THAT it is not made publicly available until 12 MONTHS after the online date of publication, and that: (1) you include a link (url) to the published version of the Article on the Journal's website; (2) the Journal is attributed as the original place of publication with the correct citation details given.

FREE LINK TO PUBLISHED ARTICLE

On publication of your article, you will receive a URL, giving you access to the published article on the Journal website, and information on use of this link.

EDUCATIONAL USE

You may use the Article within your employer's institution or company for educational or research purposes only, including use in course-packs, as long as: (1) you do not use it for commercial purposes or re-distribution outside of the institution/company; (2) you acknowledge the Journal as the original place of publication with the correct citation details given.

Notes (please read)

- 1 No article will be published unless an assignment form has been signed. As the Author(s), copyright in the Article remains yours (or your employer's if your employer claims copyright in your work).
- 2 Full details of Oxford Journals' Publications Rights Policies including self-archiving rights for authors can be found at http://www.oxfordjournals.org/access_purchase/publication_rights.html and/or in the Instructions to Authors for the journal concerned.
