

Table of Contents

Preface

Philip Sadgrove

Dan D.Y. Shapira

Karaite Printing in the Ottoman Empire 1

Dickran Kouymjian

From Manuscript to Printed Book: Armenian Bookbinding from the Sixteenth to the Nineteenth Century 13

René Bekius

Polyglot Amsterdam Printing Presses 1620s–1720s:
Armenian and Jewish Printers Compared 23

Carsten-Michael Walbiner

Some Observations on the Perception and Understanding of Printing amongst the Arab Greek Orthodox (Melkites) in the Seventeenth Century 65

Geoffrey Roper

Turkish Printing and Publishing in England in the Seventeenth Century 77

I. Metin Kunt

Reading Elite, Elite Reading 89

Frédéric Hitzel

Ambroise Firmin-Didot, un éditeur parisien témoin des premières imprimeries impériales de Constantinople en 1816 101

Philip Sadgrove

The European Press in Khedive Ismā'īl's Egypt (1863–66): A Neglected Field 109

Özgür Türesay

Contribution à l'histoire de l'édition ottomane: les almanachs
Ebüzziya (1880–1900) 129

Ami Ayalon
Inscribing the Public Domain: Arabic Placards, Proclamations and Handbills	155
Uri M. Kupferschmidt
Literacy, Illiteracy and Censorship in the Tradition of the Muslim Brotherhood	165
Jacob M. Landau
Attempts at Romanization in the Middle East and Central Asia	185
Cheng-Hsiang Hsu
The Huart Collection at the National Taiwan University	193
Gavin D. Brockett
Provincial Newspapers, Print Culture and the Framing of the Turkish Nation, 1945–1954	207
Huda Smitshuijzen Abi-Farès
Arabic Type as Cultural Identity	233
Jean-Louis Estève and Nathalie Rodriguez
L’Impression lithographique du livre: Éléments pour un inventaire des signes et traces spécifiques à l’impression lithographique du livre	241