

Announcing the
20TH
CENTURY
BRITISH HISTORY
Essay Prize 2009

Covering the variety of British history in the twentieth century in all its aspects, Twentieth Century British History seeks to transcend traditional disciplinary boundaries, in order to foster the study of patterns of change and continuity across the twentieth century.

Committed to publishing work that examines the British experience within a comparative context, and also the work of recently qualified scholars, TCBH links the many different and specialized branches of historical scholarship with work in social sciences.

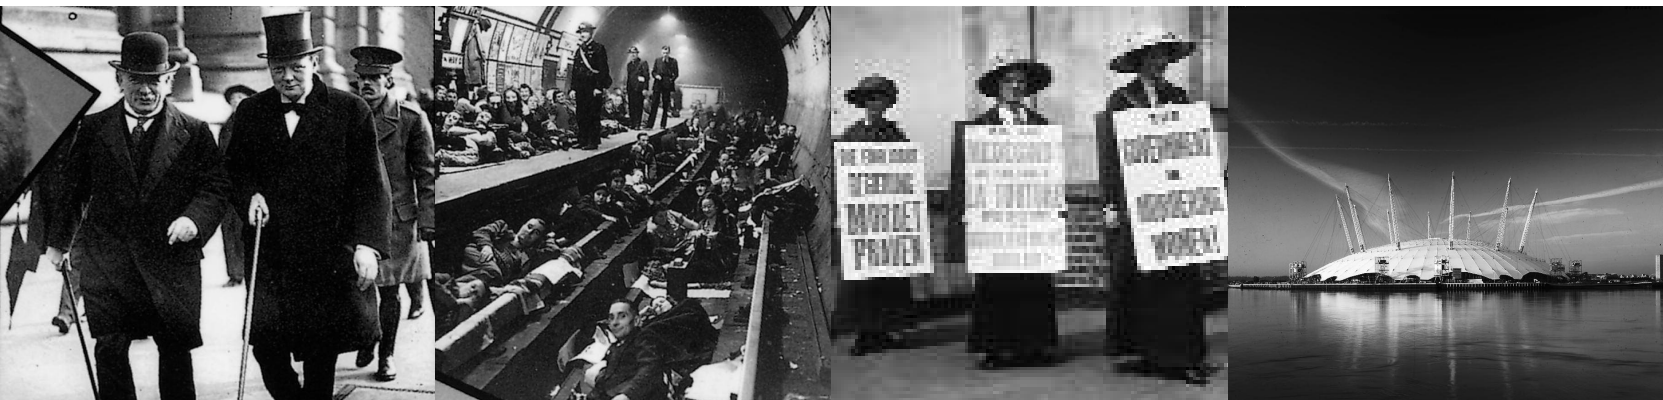

The Twentieth Century British History Essay Prize encourages a high standard of scholarship amongst postgraduate research students in Britain and abroad.

THE PRIZE

The prize for the winning essay includes:

- Publication of the winning essay in Twentieth Century British History •
  - A cash prize of £300 •
  - £200 worth of OUP books •
- One year's free subscription to Twentieth Century British History •

The Essay Prize is open to anyone currently registered for a higher research degree, or who completed one no earlier than October 2008

HOW TO ENTER

You can download the official TCBH Essay Prize Entry Form from the website along with all the information about the prize, including the rules and instructions to authors.

www.tcbh.oxfordjournals.org