Social Sciences Collection 2016

(69 titles)

Working with prestigious scholars, societies, and associations, such as the International Studies Association, President and Fellows of Harvard University, The National Association of Social Workers, and The World Bank, the OUP Social Sciences Collection encompasses some of the highest quality journals across the social sciences; including an exceptional and diverse selection in economics and finance.

Within our Social Science Collection we have four journals that are first in their subject category. African Affairs is now top in the Area Studies category, whilst The Quarterly Journal of Economics is first in Economics. The Journal of Public Administration Research and Theory is first in Public Administration and Political Analysis is the top-ranked journal in the Political Science category.

Foreign Policy Analysis

New for 2016

Impact Factor: 0.978*
International Relations 30/85

4 issues per year

Foreign Policy Analysis provides an open forum for research publication that enhances the communication of concepts and ideas across theoretical, methodological, geographical and disciplinary boundaries. By emphasizing accessibility of content for scholars of all perspectives and approaches in the editorial and review process, Foreign Policy Analysis serves as a source for efforts at theoretical and methodological integration.

International Political Sociology

New for 2016

Impact Factor: 0.734*
International Relations 41/85

4 issues per year

International Political Sociology (IPS) is especially concerned with challenges arising from contemporary transformations of social, political, and global orders given the statist forms of traditional sociologies. IPS is committed to theoretical innovation, new modes of empirical research and the geographical and cultural diversification of research beyond the usual circuits of European and North-American scholarship.

International Studies Perspectives

New for 2016

Impact Factor: 0.652*
International Relations 47/85

4 issues per year

International Studies Perspectives (ISP) publishes articles that bridge the interests of researchers, teachers, and practitioners working within any and all subfields of international studies. The journal is devoted to five types of contributions: policy research and commentary, pedagogical analyses, new and updated datasets, pieces of interest and special issues and forums.

International Studies Quarterly

New for 2016

Impact Factor: 1.705*
Political Science 27/161

4 issues per year

International Studies Quarterly is the flagship journal of the International Studies Association. It seeks to publish leading scholarship that engages with significant theoretical, empirical, and normative subjects in international studies. Articles in International Studies Quarterly engage in some meaningful way with political, economic, social, or cultural processes that cross the borders of states.

International Studies Review

New for 2016

Impact Factor: 0.878*
Political Science 66/161

4 issues per year

The focus of the International Studies Review is on books and research dealing with international institutions and the foreign policies, international interactions, and international relationships of such political agents as national governments, subnational groups, and international governmental and nongovernmental organizations.

Journal of Consumer Research

New for 2016

Impact Factor: 3.125*
Business 16/115

12 Issues per year

Founded in 1974, this journal publishes scholarly research that describes and explains consumer behaviour. Empirical, theoretical, and methodological articles spanning fields such as psychology, marketing, sociology, economics, communications, and anthropology are featured in this interdisciplinary journal.
