Oxford University Press is the leading publisher of international law scholarship and this superior reputation is reflected in the outstanding quality of the titles offered in our Law Collection. Areas of legal scholarship include comparative, foreign investment, commercial, competition, environmental, refugee, and economic law, as well as legal studies, jurisprudence, dispute settlement, criminal and transitional justice. OUP partners with many prestigious legal organizations and societies to produce top quality journals, ensuring the Law Collection is an essential resource for scholars and practitioners worldwide. Customized packages of specialized subject content such as the International Law Collection are also available for our corporate customers.
The British Yearbook of International Law

New for 2016

1 Issue per year

The British Yearbook of International Law has become an essential work of reference for academics and practising lawyers. Through a mixture of articles and extended book reviews it continues to provide up-to-date analysis on important developments in modern international law. It has established a reputation as a showcase for the best in international legal scholarship and its articles continue to be cited for many years after publication.

Arbitration International

New for 2016

4 Issues per year

Launched in 1985, Arbitration International provides quarterly coverage for national and international developments in the world of arbitration. The journal aims to maintain balance between academic debate and practical contributions to the field, providing both topical material on current developments and analytic scholarship of permanent interest.

The British Journal of Criminology

Impact Factor: 1.442

6 Issues per year

Criminology & Penology 15/55

BJC is a valuable resource for academics and researchers in crime, whether they be from criminology, sociology, anthropology, psychology, law, economics, politics or social work, and for professionals concerned with crime, law, criminal justice, politics, and penology.

Journal of Law, Economics, and Organization

Impact Factor: 1.205

6 Issues per year

Law 41/140

The Journal of Law, Economics, & Organization is an interdisciplinary journal which promotes an understanding of many complex phenomena by examining such matters from a combined law, economics, and organization perspective. It includes scholarship which draws upon political science, psychology, and sociology, among other fields.

Jerusalem Review of Legal Studies

New for 2016

2 Issues per year

Jerusalem Review of Legal Studies, published by Oxford University Press in association with the Faculty of Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, is a law journal dedicated to in-depth discussions of important studies in law. Each issue consists of several symposia on a book or a research project, which entail critical comments by commentators and a response by the researcher.

Yearbook of European Law

New for 2016

1 Issue per year

The Yearbook of European Law seeks to promote the dissemination of ideas and provide a forum for legal discourse in the wider area of European law. It is committed to the highest academic standards and to providing informative and critical analysis of topical issues accessible to all those interested in legal studies. It reflects diverse theoretical approaches towards the study of law.

The Oxford Journals Collection

Features and Benefits for Libraries

- perpetual access to paid-for content
- access to content dating back to 1996
- subscribe to the entire collection, individual subject packages or a customized selection of titles
- COUNTER 4-compliant usage statistics
- digital preservation arrangements with CLOCKSS, LOCKSS, and Portico
- licence options available for individual libraries (single and multi-site) and consortia

Features and Benefits for Library Users

- access available via IP address or remotely, via Athens and Shibboleth (where available)
- integrated searching via PubMed and Google Scholar
- keep informed of the latest research with free email alerting
- downloadable references in multiple formats including EndNote, Zotero, ProCite, BibTex or RefWorks
- toll-free linking from citations to any journal hosted by HighWire Press
- mobile-optimized service, including offsite access

* 2015 Journal Citation Reports® Social Sciences Edition (Thomson Reuters, 2015)